APERITIF CULTURE AT PICCOLINO

Our bartenders are evangelists of the 'aperitivo' hours. Both a time-honoured tradition and a sophisticated prelude to any meal, the classic 'aperitif' is revered at Piccolino and is as much about the cultural ritual as it is about the drink itself. We believe the most compelling reason to enjoy an aperitif is the simple notion of time – to willingly spend an extended period to participate in a social act that urges us to take our time in a relentlessly fast paced world.

Our favourite white

Gavi del Comune di Gavi Alasia 2015 £36.25

Top quality, complex and enchanting. This husband and wife team Claudio Manera and Lella operate one of the most progressive wine co-operatives in Northern Italy. This old vine Gavi is a fabulous wine to start your evening with.

Producer: Araldica Vini Piemontesi

Winemaker: Claudio Manera

Region of Origin: Piedmont

Tasting Notes: An enticing nose of white peach, pear and acacia blossoms with hints of fresh lime and gooseberry. Fresh and light zesty citrus notes and crisp acidity lift a textured, full-flavoured palate.

We suggest: Drink as an aperitif or delicious with our calamari fritti, spiedini di pesce or branzino con gremolata.

Our favourite red

Villa Raiano, Taurasi DOCG 2011 £47.00

Super-charged Aglianico from the family-owned winery of Villa Raiano, established in 1996, in the village of Raiano, Campania. In 2009, a new winery was built – on top of a hill amongst vineyards and chestnut woods, overlooking the River Sabato near San Michele di Serino in the Southern Appenines. Matured for 24 months in barrique and tonneau.

Producer: Villa Raiano

Winemaker: Fortunato Sebastiano

Region of Origin: Campania

Tasting Notes: Spicy & smoky notes with hints of sour cherry. On the palate – powerful with black fruits, liquorice & dark chocolate with a fresh acidity. Intriguingly balanced with bags of finesse

We suggest: Great with our tagliatelle alla Bolognese or agnello scottadito.

We're passionate about Italy and have created an all Italian wine list full of discovery and popular wine styles, researched and tasted by our own wine experts.

Deeply rooted in classic Italian varieties and categorised by region to complement our seasonal menu, our list encompasses hand-crafted wines from producers in the north, where a cooler climate is perfect for cultivating Sauvignon Blanc and Cortese grapes.

The warmer central and southern regions showcase the brilliance of Chianti and Brunello. We endeavour to provide an eclectic list of wonderful wines for every palate.

It is our pleasure to guide you through your wine and food journey in any way we can.

As we know the Montresor family personally, we've met Giorgio and Edoardo Montresor, the charming father and son duo that represent 3rd and 4th generations of this famed wine making heritage on numerous occasions. Their genuine passion for wine paired with their rich and fascinating personal history confirms a commitment to tradition and respect for the art of winemaking.

Producing some of the finest quality wines in Italy, their family roots may have originated in France, but politics during the 16th Century had them pack up and head for the hills of northern Italy. It was here that they acquired the land to begin their journey into Italian viticulture and have been producing wine ever since. And we are glad for that!

Food friendly, easy drinking and great value - here are some of our favourites:

Rosé Royal Spumante NV £36.00

We're always looking for wines with personality and this vivacious sparkling ticks all the boxes. Great value for money, fun, fresh and fruity - the secret is out on this pink spumante. A fantastic aperitivo but stands up equally well to primi and secondi. There is always an excuse to drink bubbles.

Valpolicella Classico Ripasso Capitel della Crosara 2014 /15 £34.25

Rustic meets rich with this oak aged Valpolicella that showcases a mix of vigour, earthiness and charm. This wine is made by the Ripasso (literally means repassed) method which involves adding the unpressed skins from the dried grapes used to make an Amarone wine. A real generous wine, drink with pollo funghi, spaghetti con polpettine or bistecca di girello.

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, La Colombaia 2013/14 £62.00

Hand harvested grapes produce this powerful Amarone. Full bodied and rich flavours show after ageing this wine in Slavonian oak casks and small barrels for 2 years. As Giorgio Montresor might say, 'it's music in a bottle'. Drink with tagliata di manzo, anatra arrosto or formaggi.
