PROSECCO BAR BY PICCOLINO

The region of Veneto is made up of seven provinces - all producing Prosecco from the Glera grape but it is in Treviso where the grape truly flourishes. Our wine team toured the region, met the wine makers and have partnered with family-owned producers like Andreola and Terre di San Venanzio to bring you Prosecco not available anywhere else in the UK.

In Treviso terroir really counts and the label of every bottle of Prosecco tells us more about the wine than just it's classification. Prosecco is also labelled by sugar content - Brut is the driest, followed by Extra Dry and then Dry.

BRUT Less than 12g/l

EXTRA DRY Between 12-17g/l

DRY Between 17-32g/l
